LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of January. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during January which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of February. State offices are requested to furnish copies of documents distributed during February which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital, the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

[1] Through the courtesy of Mr. George S. Goddard, state librarian, the Library of Congress has received a complete file of the material published and distributed by the Connecticut Council of defense. The documents consist of blank forms, pamphlets, mimeographed bulletins, letters, posters, stickers, and the like; because of their form, only a part of the documents lent themselves conveniently for listing, but the whole collection forms a valuable record of the work of this energetic organization.

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of March. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during March which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of April. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during April which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of May. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during May which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of June. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during June which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the months of July and August. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during July and August which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of September. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during September which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of October. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during October which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of November. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during November which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

DIVISION OF DOCUMENTS

The publications listed in this issue are those received by the Library of Congress during the month of December. State offices are requested to furnish copies of Documents distributed during December which are not included in this number.

Unless otherwise specified, the offices which publish the State documents here listed are located at the State capitals. If not located at the State capital the locality is given immediately after the author entry.

The publications of each State are arranged in the following order: (i) governor and legislature; (ii) departments, bureaus, boards, and commissions; (iii) courts; (iv) individual institutions and societies.

Library of Congress card numbers are given at the end of the titles for which they are available. When the card number is given in the larger type after the general title of a serial publication, it indicates that the card is an open entry for the publication as a whole. When the card number is given in small type after a contents item, it indicates that the card is an analytic for that particular issue of the serial publication.
